The Feast of the Epiphany

Mr Timothy Trimble
Director for Finance and Administration
Anglican Communion Office

Dear Mr Trimble,

Greetings in the name of Jesus Christ! I write to you today on behalf of The Venerable Canon Dr. Jon Lumanog so that he might be nominated and considered to be the next Secretary General of the Anglican Communion.

Canon Lumanog is known to me and other Primates of the Communion in Asia, Africa, South America as well as the Middle East as an extraordinarily gifted and capable priest, dynamic leader, administrator and ambassador for his Province. He is able to relate to many other cultures well and communicate the truth of the Gospel in many other contexts.

Canon Jack has performed admirably in his role as Canon to the Archbishop and Chief Operations Officer for the Anglican Church in North America. Through his work, he has brought together the Primates of the Global South on many occasions – most recently for the large scale investiture service for Archbishop Foley Beach in Atlanta where we had a significant role in its successful planning and execution.

Canon Lumanog is a man of prayer, grounded in Holy Scripture and has a deep passion for the Lord and His Church – particularly for our Anglican Communion. I know he would serve well as our next Secretary General and respectfully ask that you give his nomination the attention it deserves.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

The Most Revd Stephen Than Myint Oo
Primate, Archbishop and Bishop of Yangon
